Junior & Teen Tennis League

Junior & Teen Tennis League is a fun and social way for pupils training with a hard ball to practically implement what they are working on in their lessons. It is the best way of finding out which areas of your game break down under pressure which means your training can be much more focused and effective.

The basic's of what Junior & Teen Tennis League will teach you:

- How to call your own ends & umpire your own match appropriately.
- How to speed up play and get through matches without a lot of "down time".
- How to represent your club by displaying a high level of tennis ettiquette on & off court.
- How to warm up and cool down effectively after a match.
